Mrs. Harriet V. Robbins of this city died at Tremonton yesterday afternoon following a long illness. A stroke was the immediate cause of death. The remains were brought to this city last evening by her son William K. Robbins and Undertaker George W. Lindquist. No definite arrangements were made last evening as to funeral services.

Stephen Hallstone and Orson Hansen were the heroes in the run away which occurred on Center street yesterday when the delivery team of the P. A. Nielsen & Son proceeded to race down the dusty roads, scattering the green groceries and canned goods as they went. Leo Nielsen is arranging for medals to show the proper recognition for the services rendered by the two worthies.

In the Tuesday's issue of this paper we called attention to a settlement by the Continental Life Insurance Company to the estate of the late George F. Thatcher, through the administrator D. H. Thomas. A reference was made therein that a settlement had been made on the stock held by Mr. Thatcher, when it should have been stated that a settlement had been made of $134.03 more than the estate expected, the same being the amount of the earnings on the $5000 life insurance policy which had matured through death. This correction is made in justice to Messrs Rich and Brower, representatives of the Continental Life Insurance Company, who do not wish the idea to go out that the settlement made was on stock.

There is only one kind of deceit that can be tolerated; if you get up in the morning with a grouch do not let anyone find it out all day.

New Manager At The Eagle Hotel

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Marshall moved their household effects to Ogden yesterday, Mr. Marshall having closed out his interests in the Eagle Hotel with Mr. Charles A. Packham of Ogden, the latter gentleman to assume active management of the Hotel. Mr. Marshall will go to Ogden for the summer. He has a deal on for taking over the New Grand Hotel in Salt Lake but will not be able to close the deal before fall. The Marshall's have made numerous friends here who will regret that they have decided to change their place of abode. However, Mr. Marshall's interests were in such shape that he felt that they could be better served by his moving to Ogden.

Mr. Packham will move his family here. He is said to be an experienced man, having managed the Hot Springs for some time and also having been engaged at the Orpheum in Salt Lake. He is a live, energetic young man and should add materially to the booster spirit which prevails in this city.

Dr. C. N. Jensen, president of the Brigham Young College has returned from his eastern trip. He promises us a report of his trip for Saturday's issue. He is feeling well and had a most delightful as well as educational stay at Richmond, Virginia, where he attended the National Convention of Superintendents of Schools.

Funeral services were held in the Third ward on Tuesday over the remains of Mrs. Thomas Ashment, an old resident of this valley. The speakers were Richard Yeates, John Buckley, William Watterson, Prest. Ballif and John Quayle. Miss Agnes Tarbet sang a beautiful solo. There were a number of Richmond acquaintances in attendance at the services.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE NEWS

President John A. Widdowson in the chapel exercises on Tuesday, said wealth, power and fame are desirable so long as they do not obstruct the possessor's vision or hamper the full developments of his natural power. Otherwise they are very detrimental.

Professor P. E. Peterson's class in accounting I, shortly will visit some of the larger commercial concerns of Salt Lake City to investigate their several systems of accounting, with a view to discovering what is in vogue in actual business practice and to decide whether any improvement might be made and where.

At the regular meeting of the instructors and advanced students in the school of commerce of the College on Monday afternoon at the Commercial Booster's club rooms: Tenancy in the northern states was discussed by J. I. Laurentzen and Women's Competition in the United States by Glen Alleman. These weekly meetings were begun a week ago and will be held every Monday for the purpose of keeping instructors and students in closer touch with a current economic topics. Last week's discussion was upon The National Budget, which will be considered by congress during this session and the Minimum Wage Law.

Next Friday a swimming tournament for the girls of the College will begin and will be run for three weeks. The contest will be given to determine the power of contestants to stay on top of the water longest by either swimming or treading, as a person would have to do till help came in case of wreck or accident. Also tests will be made as to time and technique of swimming. The winner will be declared champion. Miss Mary Johnson who is charge of the women's physical training has begun practice for the Maypole festival to be held out of doors the first part of May.

LOGAN DRUGGIST HAS VALUABLE AGENCY

The City Drug Co., has the Logan agency for the simple mixture of buckthorn bark glycerin, etc. known as Adler-I-ka, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple remedy has powerful action and drains such surprising amounts of old matter from the body that JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. The QUICK action of Adler-I-ka is astonishing.—Adv.

Fine Distinction.

The fine distinction in the animal kingdom is that the biggest hog gets killed, while the human article goes on and on forever.

SPECIAL HEALTH

WARNING FOR MARCH

March is a trying month for the very young and for elderly people. Croup, bronchial colds, lagrippe and pneumonia are to be feared and avoided. Foley's Honey and Tar is a great family medicine that will quickly stop a cough, check the progress of a cold, and relieve inflamed and congested air passages. It is safe, pure and always reliable. ## STENOGRAPHER ELOPES WITH THE MAYOR'S SON

Butte, Montana, March 10.—Edwin Duncan, 22, son of Mayor Lewis Duncan, Socialist, eloped with Mamie Moe a comely young stenographer employed in Mayor Duncan's office, and they were married tonight in Great Falls. The bride formerly resided in Salt Lake City, when her father was employed as a janitor there. The mayor refused to talk of the elopement. News of the wedding came as a surprise to parents of both the bride and bridegroom.

I had not the least idea Edwin was to marry, said Mrs. Duncan. The mayor and I both regard Miss Moe highly. She often visits our home, but we never suspected an attachment. The bride left her parents without word of her intentions, saying she was going for a rest.

Lodgepole pine seed sown broadcast on the snow in southern Idaho last spring germinated when the snow melted, and as many as sixty little trees were counted to the square foot. The summer was so dry, however, that most of the plants died, except where sheltered by brush or logs.
